

28 February – 1 March 2018

Welcome to the 2018 CopperFlora Workshop

Brian Ford

Kolwezi-Fungurume - Democratic Republic of Congo

Thank You

- Provincial Authorities
 - The Governor of the Lualaba Province
 - The Ministers of Lualaba and Haut-Katanga Province
 - The Chamber of Mines
 - The Mayor of Kolwezi

Organizing Committees

- TFM Environmental Services (CMOC, DRC)
 - Brian Ford
- The Biodiversity and Landscape Unit (ULiège, Belgium)
 - Professor Grégory Mahy
 - Professor Francois Malaisse (Expert Long time Contributor to the Copper Flora Program)
- The Faculty of Agronomy (UNILU, DRC)
 - Professor and Dean Mylor Ngoy Shutcha and Wilfred Massengo

Workshop Objectives

- Increasing awareness to Government/NGO and Mining Companies for the conservation of a unique vegetation called CopperFlora
- Share experiences and strategies of mining companies for the promotion of copper flora

Conference Program

- Day 1: February 28th
 - Presentations and Discussion (Kolwezi)
 - Session 1: GxABT-TFM Copperflora Conservation strategy discussion
 - Session 2: UNILU and GxABT added-value of the Copperflora research and conservation
 - Session 3: Guest presentation opportunities
 - Conclusion
 - Break Time: Posters/discussion/exchange

Conference Program

- Day 2: March 1st
 - Safety at TFM
 - TFM Site Visit
 - Bravo Ecosystem
 - TFM Environmental Department
 - Seedbank
 - Nursery
 - Kakavilondo Iko Ecosystem
 - Kabwe Protected areas (PMRs)