

June 29, 2016

Dear Dr. Dao Duy Minh,

We would like to invite you to participate in the Lower Mekong Policy Forum on Environment, Agriculture and Livelihoods at Siem Reap, Cambodia, on August 11-12, 2016. The Policy Forum is co-organized by the Lower Mekong Public Policy Initiative (LMPPI), the Cambodia Development Resource Institute (CDRI), and the Sustainable Mekong Research Network (SUMERNET).

LMPPI is funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). It is managed by the Fulbright Economics Teaching Program (FETP) in Ho Chi Minh City, and the Vietnam Program at the Ash Center, Harvard Kennedy School, and Cambridge, USA. LMPPI supports inter-disciplinary research, policy engagement, and capacity building on the environment, agriculture, and livelihoods across the Lower Mekong Basin (LMB).

The forum will bring together experts from the public sector, researchers, policy makers, LMPPI research teams and partners, and representatives from international organizations. Please find attached the tentative agenda for your reference.

Could you please confirm your availability by July 10th, 2016? Please note that we will fund your transport to Siem Reap as well as lodging and meals. We will send you the registration form and logistics arrangement of the event after your attendance is confirmed.

We look forward to welcoming you at the Forum in Siem Reap in August.

On behalf of the organizing partners,

Le Thi Quynh Tram
Director
Lower Mekong Public Policy Initiative
