It is the son, who you will love, who you truly brought forth, while you envelop him, while you love him.

Your offspring of your shape is your son, which you made yourself. Hear this with your two ears, beautiful west, the voice of Osiris, the bull of the west. ‘Welcome in peace, may you make good travels’, thus she says, the beautiful west. She comes even in order to meet you, with her adornments of her sened clothes, and the necklaces of faience. Her offerings travel upon her two arms, her provisions are behind her, saying: ‘Come! may you make yourself a god in his dignity of bull of the west, may you be ennobled according to your desire, you are the son of the lord of the house.

Osiris in Busiris, after this dh wy-nht came to the place where your majesty is.

He will expel your shout,

He will cause your enemies to tremble,

while you cause that the good west knows:

It is her daughter, this dh wy-nht, who she brought forth and who she has enfolded for you,

who she loved.

Your son is your offspring of your shape, which you made yourself.

‘Hear this with your two ears’, which is said by Osiris to the majesty of the west.

‘Welcome in peace, one who made good travels,

while I enfold you.’

thus she says, the beautiful west, to this dh wy-nht.

She came even in order to meet with him, with the adornment of sened cloth, after they endured the sened clothes of the red ones.

Her offerings are extended upon her two arms, her provisions are behind her,

while she says to her: ‘Come, be welcome, may you act as a goddess in the following of the bull of the west, may you be ennobled according to your desire,

You are the daughter of the lord of the house.’

O gods who are with the chaos gods,

O ennead, which is in secrets.

May the gods see her, this divine spirit,

who Osiris made for his son,

who Isis made as his offspring,

to whom the adoration of the gods will be given.

Come, so that you see her, she who came forth in peace, her voice being true.

Rejoice at her approach,

while you travel to her,

the majesty of the west herself, while she meets with this dhwty-nht, while she says to her:

‘Welcome in peace, daughter, the pillar of his mother, who is shining of horn.

Travel in peace, so that I may envelop you.’

Osiris has commanded:

‘Greetings to you, beautiful west.

Behold, this dhwty-nht comes to you,

so that she will protect your face every day,

your daughter, your offspring which you brought forth for Osiris.’

She has come, even protecting in the island of fire.
She has expelled her dust from herself, she has filled her belly with magic, she has quenched her thirst with it, while her watchers tremble through it for her like a bird.

He has equipped the land even with that which he did not know, like those to whom he has descended. She has said in front of her:

Greetings to you, beautiful west in the following of Osiris, and vice-versa.'

This dhwyty-nht has even come here, which was loved because of her. She removes your injury, Osiris, she causes your enemies to tremble.

‘Travel in peace, so that this dhwyty-nht may enfold you.’

which is said by the beautiful west to this dhwyty-nht, who is in the west.

I am the god who is exhaled of shape, after this noble god who came into being (by) himself created me.

I am the god who opened the sky with beauty, who made the sun-folk serve.

I have ascended from his limbs.

I grew at his feet, I came to be in his two arms.

That which he made is as his wish, he created me even with his power.

I have sat and I have stood among them.

I give my splendour in accordance with my nature.

When I speak, the gods are silent.

I say to you: my creation is my own.

I say to you: the creation of shapes is my own, which is more silent than the gods who were censing the ennead. I say to you: my creation is my own.

Do not question my creation of myself, do not question my creation from Noun.

That which he made is as his wish, he created me even with his power.

I am the god who is exhaled of shape, after this noble god who came into being (by) himself created me.

My soul has not yet been guarded by the guardians of the limbs of Osiris.
You possess your soul, you possess your power.
My soul will be grasped by Aker,
My soul is not guarded by magic.
May my soul pass in astonishment upon them,
while it enters into the shrine of the sanctuary of Sokar.
That which it has taken for it is under me,

Do not question the creation of this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} from Noun.

He did not know the place in which this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} came to be,

He does not see the coming to be of this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} with his sight,

This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} came to be and was knitted together even from the body of the great god who came into being (by) himself.

He created this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} with his wish, he made this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} with his power, he exhaled this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} even from his nose.

This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} is the god who is exhaled of shape, which this noble god who came to be (by) himself created, who opened the sky with his beauty, who unites the shapes of the gods, whose name the gods who navigate it do not know,

whom the sun-folk serve.

This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} grew at his feet, this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} came to be in his two arms.

This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} has ascended from his arms, from his limbs.

He created this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} with his wish himself, he made this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} with his power.

This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} is not born, it is she who is born.

after a herbage was made for this \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} in the field of Asia.

This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} is the one who made the thin flat cakes for you, gods.

This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} is the one in the midst of his circle for the lord of the green fields in the netherworld.

O Ra-Atoum, O Noun. This \textit{s}3\textit{.t-hd-htp} is the one who causes the provisions to be plentiful, who causes the food of Osiris to be fresh, those who are in their caverns and in Noun will fear him.

This $s.s.t.hd-htp$ has made the provisions plentiful, this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ has caused the food of Osiris to be fresh.

Because this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ comes to be from the flesh of this noble god who came to be (by) himself, who opened the sky with his beauty, who assembles the shapes of every god, the lord of truth who locks the house of the robber, who caused that the shapes of this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ are assembled for him.

This $s.s.t.hd-htp$ is exhaled of shapes, this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ is exhaled of shapes.

He did not birth this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ with his mouth, he did not conceive this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ with his grasp, who caused that the shapes of this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ are assembled for him.

He has exhaled this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ from his nose, He made this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ in the centre of his beauty, which those who are in mysteries acclaim, while he, he opens the sky with his beauty, who causes all the skies to come near for the gods who are in their gates, while they are seeing his light. while he judges the hidden matters that are in the six-weave linen of Ra.

This $s.s.t.hd-htp$ created her soul behind this $s.s.t.hd-htp$, in order to cause that he learns the knowledge for this $s.s.t.hd-htp$.

While this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ is throughout all skies, this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ will embrace all the lands, this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ will perform the decree for Him.

The soul of this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ does not burn upon her corpse, the soul of this $s.s.t.hd-htp$ is not guarded.
by the guardians of the rooms of Osiris.

While this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ begets, the soul of this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ begets, the soul of this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ begets with the people who are in the island of fire.

Her royal head-cloth is raised even for this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$, it is the one who is in his shape who raises this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ and her honours.

This $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ has taken the honours of those who are in their caverns away, this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ does not listen to magic, coming into being before it.

The clothing of this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ is the breath of life, after it has gone forth behind this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ from the mouth of Atoum.

This $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ came to be even from the god who came into being (by) himself, alone and older than the gods.

This $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ is the one who unites the heights of the sky for him,

This $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ is the one who brought his power for him, after he united his multitudes of his ka which were placed in the protection of his associates.

This $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ has extinguished the fire, this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ has cooled she who burns, this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ has silenced she who is in her wrath, the fiery one who separates and gathers the gods together.

This $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ is the one who made the flame which the fire burns, because the heat of the blast of its mouth is against this $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$.

This $s\text{.}t$-$\text{hd}-\text{htp}$ is the one who conveys the soul of she who burns, which made the pain of the flame of she who is in her rage,

This ḫḥwty-nht is the great god in front of his green fields, who judges the hidden matter in the six-weave linen of Ra. This ḫḥwty-nht created his soul behind him. In order to cause that he learns the knowledge for them. While this ḫḥwty-nht is throughout all skies, he will embrace all the lands. This ḫḥwty-nht will perform that which was said for him and the decree for him. The soul of this ḫḥwty-nht does not burn upon his corpse, the soul of this ḫḥwty-nht is not guarded, by the guardians of the limbs of Osiris. while this ḫḥwty-nht, he begets, the soul of this ḫḥwty-nht begets with the people who are in the island of fire. This ḫḥwty-nht himself begets with the goddesses. This ḫḥwty-nht raises his royal head-cloth even upon him. He allots his royal head-cloth even to the one who is in his cavern, it is the one who is in his cavern who raises the royal head-cloth of this ḫḥwty-nht. it is the one who is in his shape who raises his honours. This ḫḥwty-nht has taken the honours of those who are in their caverns away, This ḫḥwty-nht does not listen to magic, he has come into being before it. The red crown is on the head of the god who came to be by himself.

‘The crown of LE rejoices when it sees the red crown.’

So say they, the god(s) who hears their words.

The god is friendly to the god after I came to be from his body,

after they saw him,

They will make a road for me,

when I go forth, which they will see from the shrine,

after I judged the courtiers who are around the shrine,

I release who I should release,

I nourished who I should nourish,

I remove my restraint.

Blood is my detestation.

I will be together with the lord of life.

I am the one who unites the multitudes for him, who ties the courtiers together for him.

I am the one who makes those who are around his shrine firm for him, in accordance with that which was commanded to me.

He has created an authoritative utterance for me, my soul is behind me, in order to cause that he knows that which I have learned,

while I am throughout all the skies,

while I travel all the lands.

I will do that which he commands to me.

It does not burn, my soul,

because of foulness.
My soul is not guarded by the guardian of the limbs of Osiris.

‘You possess your soul and your foulness.’ which is said by the one who came to be by himself to me.

My soul will not be seized by falcons, my soul is not grasped by pigs.

My soul will not be grasped by the earth gods,

My soul is not guarded by the magic of the courtiers of Re.

My soul will not pass in astonishment upon them,

while it enters and after he went forth to the gate of the shrine of your sanctuary of Sokar, towards the shrine, after it has taken my possessions of the earth gods of Atoum,

because I came to be in front of it, while it places my power with my enemies who are in the sky and land.

I will drive them from their tombs.

I have thrown them down from their mansions, while I expel them there upon their seats.

I will destroy those who are there upon their thrones, while I destroy their essences, while I cut of their power and honours.

I allot them even to an eternity of suffering, according to that which the one who came to be by himself commanded which should be done to my enemies, with the living and the dead, who are in the sky, who are in the land,

they who damage my plants in my fields,

they who will not exalt me,

they who did not show me the road to the bark of acclamation.

I am the god, hidden of shapes.

I am with the sunshine god.

My soul will not be seized by falcons, my soul is not grasped by pigs.

My soul will not be grasped by the earth gods,

My soul will not pass in astonishment upon them,

while it enters and after he went forth to the gate of the shrine of your sanctuary of Sokar, towards the shrine,

while I expel them there upon their seats,

while I destroy those who are there upon their thrones,

while I destroy their essences,

I allot them even to an eternity of suffering, with the living and the dead, who are in the sky and land,

they who damage my plants in my fields,

they who will not exalt me,

I have repeated the words of the gods who are before and who will come to be after me.

They ask about my creation from Noun, while they see my power in the bark which the one who came into being (by) himself navigates.

I have sat and I have stood among them, while I give my splendour in accordance with my nature.

I speak after the ennead is silent, the gods are censed.

He knew the place in which I came to be.

He did not see after I came into being in his sight.

I came to be from the body of the god who came into being (by) himself.

He created me with his wish, he made me with his power.

I am the god who is exhaled of shape, which the noble god who came into being (by) himself created, who illuminated the sky with his beauty, whose name the gods do not know,

whom the sun-folk serve.

I have grown at his two feet, I came to be in his two arms.

I have sat, I have given.
I have given my splendour in accordance with my nature.
I speak after the ennead is silent,
the gods are censed.
I say to you: my creation is my own.

Do not question my creation from Noun.

Noun saw me while I came into being.

He did not know the place in which I came to be.

He did not see after I came to be in his sight.

I came to be from the body of the god,

who is exhaled of shapes,

which this noble god who came into being (by) himself created,

who illuminated the sky with beauty,

whose name the gods who navigate it do not know,

whom the sun-folk serve.

I have grown at his two feet, I came to be in his two arms.

I have ascended from his body.

He created me with his wish, he made me with his power,

before I am even born, (or) was born.

A herbage was made for me in the field of Asia.

I am the one who made the thin flat cakes of the gods.

I am the one in the midst of his circle, the lord of the green fields in the Netherworld.

I am the one who causes the provisions to be plentiful, who causes the food of Osiris to be fresh.

Those who are in their caverns will fear him.

Because I come to be from the body of the god.

The honoured dead, this snbi, possessor of reverence, true of voice.

I am this great soul of Osiris,
who the gods commanded that he copulates with him,
who lives upon the one who was high on the day,
who was made for Osiris from the efflux which is in his flesh,
in order to go forth on the day so that he will copulate with him.
I am the son of Osiris, his heir within his honours.
I am the soul within his blood.
I am the one who uncovered this great crown of Lower Egypt of Osiris, which the gods fear, its uncovering,
because I am truly this great soul of Osiris,
who the gods commanded that he copulates with him,
who lives upon striding on the day,
who was made for Osiris from the efflux of his flesh,
the semen which went forth from his phallus,
in order to go forth on the day so that he will copulate with him.
I am the one who opens the places of execution, who is skilled of foreparts.

Knowing the souls of Heliopolis.

I was great yesterday among the great ones,

I came to be among those who came to be that open the face of who will place the sole one, I have opened so that I may build the injured eye.

I know the Ennead of Heliopolis, upon which the great one of the seers was not introduced, the hushing of the mouth in the Senout festival, the extending of the arm by the destroyer against the heir of Heliopolis.

I know upon which it was made, the orgasm of men.

It is the case that Re speaks with the one who is in his burning concerning the divisions of Heliopolis,

then his mouth was injured,

what came to be, it is the reduction in the monthly festival.

Then the one who is in his burning spoke:

‘I will take my harpoons, I will inherit this city.

That which came to be, it are the harpoons.

Then Re said:

‘I will indeed erect my flagpoles against him, I will expel him.’

That which came to be, it is the Senout festival.

It is Re, the one who is in his red linen has met him, before he directed his arm against him.

Then he made his traps against him, as the woman ‘she with the braided lock of hair’.

That which came to be, it is the one with the hair lock of Heliopolis.

I am shaved while I have power against this temple.

That which came to be, it is the shorn one of Heliopolis, until my heir comes to be. May he inherit (from) me, the great one who sees the father.

Then he will come to be as the greatest of seers, as the son who acted for his father.
I know the souls of Heliopolis,

It is Re, it is Shu, it is Tefnout.

O, one who is pleased upon that which he has done four times, who sends Maat to Re every day, so that the liver of Re will flourish because of Maat, every day, while he partakes of the offering of the great one. inp(.w)-m is uninjured from any restraint, which has gone forth from the mouth of any god, spirit or dead one against this inp(.w)-m.

In this year, in this good day of the $\tau\nu\nu.t$ shrine of the city. This day will not be empty in the $\tau\nu\nu.t$ shrine, while the ka is bestowed on this day, on this good day of the $\tau\nu\nu.t$ shrine. O, peaceful one, who is in the four times, who controls the offerings on the altar of Re, every day.

This inp(.w)-m is the image of the sole one with them, this inp(.w)-m has gone forth.

Now, I will place offerings for you in the domain of Ptah.

I will repeat your festivals in Heliopolis,

I will open the roads of the netherworld for you,

I will place the fear of you in Busiris,

I will reduplicate your crown in Abydos, together with the crown of Re, which is in Thinis.

He who will come to you in the sky is the striking power of your crown,

He who will come to you from the land, he is for the striking power of your awe.

He who will come to you from the southerners, he will repel them, through Satis, the lady of Elephantine, she who shoots at them with these arrows of her, which are painful and sharp to them.

He who will come to you from the north, he is for Heqes, lord of the north, and Hapy.

He who will come to you from the easterners, he is for Sopdu, lord of the east, they who have been repelled, your knives are in them.

He who will come to you from the westerners, he is for Ha, lord of the west, he will repel them to the striking power of Atoum, in his goings forth of the horizon.

so says Thot to Osiris.

I have come, so that I may repeat the good thing for you,

so that I cause truth to ascend for you.

so that I may gladden your heart with that which you desired.

I have struck, chastised and cast your enemies down for you,

I have punished your rebels for you, I made their slaughter,

I have placed their restraints,

I have repeated [appearing against them]

I gave justification in the two shrines and joy together with the Ennead to you.

I placed your beautiful remembrance in the palace.

I placed the love for you in the island of fire, like that which Re had commanded which was done for you by Thot.

May you do this for me, which you have done for Osiris, so that my voice is caused to be true, so that you may cast down my enemies.

I am the offspring of Osiris,

I am Horus, the son of Osiris, whom the divine Isis has brought forth, she brought me forth in Chemmis,

my face formed as the divine falcon.

while my eye was made in flame

I am Horus, the son of Osiris whom the divine Isis has brought forth,

while my face formed as the falcon

My enemy fears because of me, fallen upon his two faces, while he sees me, my face formed as the falcon

My shape is like Re,

My name is like his name,

My shape is like his shape,

which mounted up that which I have done to that which he has done.

My enemy fears because of me, fallen upon his two faces, while he sees me, my face formed as the falcon

My shape is like his shape, as the divine falcon.

I have [ ... ] them with my toes,

I have ?strangled? them with my fingers,

I have grasped them with my claws,

as my strength is greater than them, in my shapes of Horus, great of strength.

I am the one to whom Shu together with Tefnout and Nout, Horus and Nout, Thot and his tribunal spoke for him.

The strength of his eye is more than his strength.

He has travelled at his birth,
he went forth in the manner of kingship,
the uraeus on my brown,
my great atef crowns on the head,

My face is formed as the divine falcon, like the shapes of Re and his ...
I have ruled the two riverbanks,
I have inherited the thrones of Horus,
I have taken the horizon of Khepri, who sat upon the seat of my father Wenennfer, through what Re said, through what Geb commanded, through what Thot established, the two shrines are satisfied because of it, the sky is in festival, the land is in joy, the ennead, their hearts are sweet because of the sound of the storm of the blower, while I go forth as Horus, justified in the shapes of Horus, while my name is like his name, my shapes are like his shapes.
I am Osiris, the son of Geb, the successor of Re, while my mother is in the bark of flesh.
I did not die, I did not perish,
I did not perish, my name did not perish,
I did not perish, I am in this land eternally.

I will proceed on the road which I knew in the direction of the island of the true ones.

Arriving at the land of the horizon-dwellers of the sky, which went forth from the holy portal.

I am the soul who came to be from you.

The eye was made complete after it was injured.

The hair was raised from the Udjat eye, at its time of rage.

This Re saw who was born on yesterday, from the buttocks of the celestial cow.

Because I am truly one from these of the ones who are behind Horus.

Greetings to you, lords of truth, the tribunal which is behind Osiris, who place terror in the evildoers, who is behind 'she is satisfied while she protects'.

Behold me, I come to you, may you expel the evil thereof, like that which you did for these seven spirits who are in the following of the lord of the nome,
whose seat Anubis made,

this day of: Come therein!

the bull 'he was not placed in front of his fire',

'the red one in front of the mansion of red linen',

'the one who is glowing of face, who went forth after turning back',

'the one who is black of face, who is in his hour',

'who sees in the night what he will bring in the day'.

I am his two souls which are in the middle of his two fledglings.

I am this great cat, who split the Ishedet tree at his side in Heliopolis,

this night of battle,

of watching over the rebels,

this day of destroying the enemies of the lord of all in it.

Oh, Re, who is in his egg,

who shines in his sun disk,

who shines in his horizon,

who swims upon his firmament,

who illuminates the two lands with his sunshine.

May you rescue this hr-htp from this hidden god who is there.

The warship of the gods was made in accordance with that which this $s3.t$-$hd$-$htp$ says.

This $s3.t$-$hd$-$htp$ is Heliopolis.

This $s3.t$-$hd$-$htp$ is this phoenix, this great one, who is in Heliopolis.

This $s3.t$-$hd$-$htp$ is Min in his processions, after she placed the feather on her head.

May this $s3.t$-$hd$-$htp$ exist on her land, after this $s3.t$-$hd$-$htp$ came from her city.

This $s3.t$-$hd$-$htp$ is driven away.

The disorder which belongs to her is removed,

which purifies the offering of the people, for this god who is in it.

im.yw-ḥt ḫr who are behind Horus.

Recitation:

One who speaks on behalf of one who his lord will love.

Greetings to you, lords of truth, the tribunal which is behind Osiris, who place terror in cheaters,

One who speaks on behalf of one who his lord will love.

Greetings to you, lords of truth, the tribunal which is behind Osiris,

who are behind 'she is satisfied while she protects'.

Behold me, I come to you, may you expel the evil thereof, like that which you did for these seven spirits who are in the following of the nome,

whose seat Anubis made,

this day of: Come therein!

As for 'she is satisfied while she protects', it is the fiery snake,

after she was placed behind Osiris until his enemies were burned up.

'I The great one is driven away',

'skdkd, ndhdh,

the bull 'his flame is in front of his fire',

'the one who enters upon the one who is in the hour',

'the one who is burning of face, who goes forth after turning back',

'who saw in the night what he will bring in the day'.

I am his two souls which are in the middle of his two fledglings.
Recitation:

It is Osiris, when he entered into Mendes, after he found a soul there for Re.

Then one embraced the other, it is Horus, who protects his father, together with Horus, who is in front without two eyes.

I am this great cat, who split the Ishedet tree at his side in Heliopolis,

this which is said by Perception:

This day where the enemies of the lord of all are destroyed.

then they became as his two souls.

As for this night of battle,

What came to be, it is his name of 'cat'.

it is while the children of the weak one are caused to enter into the east.

This which is said by Perception:

it is while the children of the weak one present what they did.

Oh, Re, who is in his egg,

who shines in his sun disk,

who swims upon his firmament,

who has no equal,

who sails upon the supports of Shu,

who gives the wind of the blast of his mouth, who illuminates the two lands with his sunshine.
May you rescue me from this god who is hidden of shapes,
whose two eyebrows are as the two arms of the balance.

This day the reckoning of the robber.

It is Horus, lord of Letopolis.

May you rescue me from this which belongs to the keepers of wounds,

'the perished ones who have painful fingers' of Osiris.

Recitation: As for the perished ones of Osiris, it is this tribunal, who opposes the matters of the enemies of Re.

I will not fall because of your knives,
I will not descend into your cauldrons,
because I know your names.

Because it is me, I will proceed upon the land with Re,
I will moor well with Osiris.

Your offerings will not come to be with me, these which belong to the chiefs of their braziers.

I am in the following of the lord of things in order to write for those who will come to be.
I will fly as a falcon,
I will cackle as a goose,
I will pass eternity like Nehebkau.

Oh, Atoum, who is in the great mansion,

The warship of the gods was made in accordance with that which I say.

I know the name of this great god who is in it.

His name is praise.

The overseer of the domain, this spi, is the great iwnw phoenix, who is in Heliopolis.

The Osiris, the overseer of the domain, this spi pr.wt=f is Min in his processions,

They are his two feathers, it is the great uraeus which is on the head of his father Atoum.

May I exist on the land, after I came from my city.

What even is it?

It is the horizon of the father, Atoum.

My wrongdoing is expelled,

The disorder which belongs to me is removed,

which are in Heracleopolis,

which purify the offerings of the people,

for this great god who is in it.

Who even is he?

It is Re himself.
What are the two very great pools?

It is the lake of natron together with the lake of maA.t.

It is the road upon which my father Atoum went,

as he has proceeded to the field of rushes.

I arrive at the land of the horizon-dwellers in the sky,

I go forth from the holy portal.

As for this portal,

it are the two leaves of the two doors, upon which the father Atou proceeded there, to the eastern horizon of the sky.

Ancestors,

give your arm to me,

I It is the overseer of the domain, this spi, came to be from you.

Who are they, these ancestors?

It is the authoritative utterance and perception, who exist together with my father Atoum in the course of every day.

I made the eye complete after it was injured, this day of the battle of the two rivals.

What is it, the battle of the two rivals?

It is Thot who did this with his fingers.

I raised the hair from the Udjat eye,

in its time of rage.

in its time of rage?
Now, who is indeed the one who raised the hair from it?

It is the right eye of Re, after it raged because of him, after he sent it.

Now, Thot who raised the hair from it.

Now, it is Thot who raised the hair from it.

It is the image of the eye of Re, the morning of his birth every day.

Now, for as for the celestial cow, it is the Udjat eye.

Because the overseer of the domain, this spi, is truly one from these of the ones who are behind Horus.

What is it, these of the ones who are behind Horus?

One who speaks on behalf of his beloved.

Greetings to you, lords of truth, the tribunal which is behind Osiris, who place terror in my evildoers,

Who are behind 'she is satisfied while she protects'.

Behold me, I come to you,

May you dispel the evil which belongs to me, like that which you did for these seven spirits who are in the following of the lord of the nome, whose seats Anubis made,

As for the portal of 'she is satisfied while she protects',

it is the fiery snake,

souls of his enemies were burned up.
As for the chief of this tribunal,

'The great one is driven away' is his name.

Another manner of saying:

The bull 'one is not placed in front of the fire',

The one who enters upon the one who is in his hour',

'the red one who is in the mansion of red linen',

'the one who is burning of face, who goes forth after turning back',

'who saw in the night what he will bring in the day'.

Another manner of saying:

'the red one who is in the red linen of the mansion'.

'who saw in the night what he will bring in the day'.

The overseer of the domain, this spi is his two souls which are in the middle of his two fledglings.

As for the chief of these two souls who are in the middle of his two fledglings,

it is Osiris,

when he entered into Mendes,

after he was found, the soul of Re there.

Then one embraced the other,

then they became as the two souls.
Now, as for his two fledglings, it is Horus, who protects his father together with the one who is in front without two eyes.

The overseer of the domain, this spi, is this cat, who split the Ishedet tree at his side in Heliopolis,

this night of battle,

of watching over the rebels,

this day of destroying the enemies of the lord of all there.

Who is the great cat? It is Re himself, 'cat' was said to him, as Perception says to him:

What came to be, it is his name of 'cat'.

Now, as for the splitting of the Ishedet tree, it is while the children of the weak one present what they did.

Now, as for the day of battle, while they enter into the east.

Then (there was) war in the land in its entirety, in the sky and in the land.

Oh, Re, who is in his egg, who shines in his sun disk, who swims upon his firmament, who has no equal as a god, who sails upon the supports of Shu, who gives the wind with a blast of his mouth, while the two lands are bright because of him.

I will pass eternity like Nehebkau.
Oh, Atoum, who is in the great mansion,

sovereign of the gods,

May you rescue me from this god,

who lives in butchery,

whose face is as a dog,

his hues are as the people.

It is the one who belongs to the winding of the lake of fire,

the one who swallows shadows,

who steals hearts,

'she is not seen'.

Oh, lord of terror, who is upon the two lands,

lord of blood, who makes the places of slaughter flourish,

to whom the crown of Upper Egypt will be given,

to whom the rulership over the gods sends

this day of the unification of the two lands,
in front of the arm of the lord of all.

Effective soul, who is in Heracleopolis,

who gives essences, who expels evildoers,

to whom the roads of eternity are conducted.

May you rescue me from this god who takes the wounds,

who licks what is putrefied,

who lives from putrefaction,

the one who belongs to darkness, who is in obscurity,

for whom the ones who are with the weary ones are afraid.

Oh, this Khepri, who is upon his bark,

the primeval one, his body is eternity.

May you rescue me from this which belongs to the keepers of the examinations, to whom Re-Atoum gave power,

in order to watch over his enemies,

Their knives will not plough into me,
I will not enter into their places of judgment,

I will not descend into their vats, nothing will be done to me from this which belongs to the abomination of the gods, because I am the one who passed being pure, who is in the midst of the Mesqet, to whom supper from faience will be brought in the \textit{\textit{t\textit{n.t}}} shrine.

A man will speak this spell […] in […] who moors well with Osiris […]

\textbf{Appendix 3.48.9. B9C,a}

Speech comes to be, Re-Atoum belongs to me.

I exist while I am alone,

I am Re in his first appearances,

I am the great one who came to be (by) himself.

Who is he, the great one who came to be by himself?

It is water, it is Noun.

My yesterday belongs to me while I know the morning.

The warship of the gods was made in accordance with that which I say.

What is it, the warship of the gods?

It is the Neshemet bark.
I am the one who knows the name of the great god who is in it.

It is the praise of Re.

I am this great phoenix, who is in Heliopolis.

The supervisor of that which exists.

Who is he?

It is Osiris.

Now, as for that which exists,

May I exist on my land, after I came from my city.

The disorder which belongs to me is removed,

after I purified in these two very great pools, which are in Heracleopolis,

which are in Heracleopolis,

Who is he?

It is Re himself.

It is the lake of natron together with the lake of the great house.
I will go upon the roads which I knew in the direction of the island of the true ones.

What is it, the roads?

It is the road of this father, Re-Atoum, upon him,

in his crossing to the field of rushes.

I arrive at the land of the horizon-dwellers in the sky,

As for the portal,

it are the two leaves of the two doors, after the father Atoum crossed to the eastern horizon of the sky.

Ancestors,

give your two arms to me,

it is me who came to be from you.

Who are they, these ancestors?

It is Thot who did this with his fingers.

Who truly are the two rivals?

It is the authoritative utterance and perception, who exist together with my father Atoum in the course of every day.

I made the eye complete after it was injured,

this day of the battle of the two rivals.

Who truly are the two rivals?

It is Thot who raised from it.

It is the day of the battle of Horus in it, together with Seth, after his inflicting of a wound on his face,

when Horus took the testicles of Seth.

It is Thot who did this with his fingers.

I raised the hair from the Udjat eye,

in its time of rage.

What is it, the Udjat eye?

Now, who is the one who raised the hair from it?

It is the right eye of Re,

when it ragged against him,

after he sent her on a task.

It is Thot who raised from it.
I saw it is Re who was born on yesterday, from the buttocks of the celestial cow.

It is the image of the eye, while it births the morning, twice, every day.

Because I am truly one from these of the ones who are behind Horus.

What is it, one from these of the ones who are behind Horus?

It is one who speak on behalf of, who his lord will love.

Greetings to you, lords of truth, the tribunal which is behind Osiris, who place terror against the evildoers, who is behind 'she is satisfied of her arm'.

Behold me, I come to you, may you expel the evil which belongs to me, like that which you did for these seven spirits who are in the following of the lords, whose seats Anubis made, this day of: Come therein!

As for these portals of 'she is satisfied while she protects', it is the fiery snake, after she was placed behind Osiris until the souls of his enemies were burned up, while she burns up the souls of the enemies of true of voice.

As for this god,

'The one who swallows a million' is his name.

Oh, lord of terror, who is upon the two lands of the people,

lord of blood, who makes the places of slaughter flourish,

to whom the crown of upper Egypt and joy will be given,

those who are with the eternal ones of Osiris.
As for these which belongs to those that boil in a vat,
it is the tribunal who opposes the case of the enemies.
I will not fall because of your knives,
I will not descend into your cauldrons,
because of the knowledge of names:
'Who shot with his eye',
'He is not seen',
'the one who encircled the sky with the flame of his mouth',
'the one who prepares the Nile'.
Because it is me even, who proceeds upon the land with Re, who is moored well with Osiris.
Your offerings will not come to be with me because of these which belong to the chiefs their braziers.

Because I am in the following of the lord of things in order to write for the ones who will come to be.

I will fly as a falcon,

I will cackle as a goose,

I will pass eternity like Nehebkau.

Oh, Re-Atoum, who is in the great mansion, sovereign of the gods,

May you rescue me from this god,

who lives with the people,

whose face is as a dog,

his hue is as the people.

It is the one who belongs to the winding of the lake of fire,

the one who swallows shadows,

who steals hearts,

who places the wound,

'he is not seen'.

Who is it?

Oh, lord of terror, who is upon the two lands,

lord of blood, who makes the places of slaughter flourish,

to whom the crown of upper Egypt and joy will be given,

in front of Heracleopolis.

Who is it?

The one to whom the rulership over the gods sends

this day of the unification of the two lands,

within the two arms of the lord of all,

[...] dead, the lord who waited with him.

Appendix 3.48.22.  \text{L1NY}
It is Re.

As for the inspection of that which exists, it is forever together with eternity.

As for eternity, it is the night.

I am Min in his processions, after the two feathers were placed on my head.

Who is he and what are his two feathers?

It is Horus who protects the father.

They are his two feathers, the uraeus which is on his head, the father Atoum.

May one exist on my land, after one came from my city.

What even is it?

The horizon of the father Atoum.

He expels my evil, my wrongdoing is driven away.

I have purified in the two very great pools, which in are Heracleopolis, which purify the offerings of the people, for this great god who is in it.

Who even is he?

It is Re himself.

What is it, the two very great pools?

It is the lake of natron together with the lake of m's.t.

I will cross upon the road which I knew in the direction of the land of the true ones.

What even is it?

It is the road upon which the father Atoum went, in his proceeding to the field of rushes.

I arrive at the land of the horizon-dwellers of the sky,

while I go forth from its holy portal.

What is this land?

What even is this portal?
It are the gods who are around the shrine.

As for this portal, it are the two doors upon which the father Atoum proceeded the east of the sky.

Ancestors, give your arm to me, who existed together with the father Atoum in the course of every day.

The eye was made complete after being injured, this day of the battle of the two rivals.

Who even is it, the two rivals?

Who even are these ancestors?

It is the authoritative utterance and perception, who existed together with the father Atoum in the course of every day.

The eye was made complete after being injured, this day of the battle of the two rivals.

It is the day in which Horus fought together with Seth, after Seth's inflicting of a wound on the face of Horus, after Horus' taking of the testicles of Seth.

What even is it, one from these of the ones who are behind Horus?

One who speaks on behalf of who he will love.

Greetings to you, lords of truth, the tribunal which is behind Osiris, who place terror in the evildoers,

who are behind 'she is satisfied while she protects'.

Behold me, I come to you, may you expel the evil thereof,

as for the portal of 'she is satisfied while she protects',

after she was placed behind Osiris until his enemies were burned up.

As for the chief of this tribunal, the bull of 'he is aflame in front of his fire',

'who will come in the night what he will bring in the day'.

I am his two souls which are in the middle of his two birds.

It is Osiris,

Now, as for his two birds,

it is Horus who protects the father together with Horus, foremost without two eyes.

I am this great cat,

who split the Ishedet tree at his side in Heliopolis,

Now, as for the splitting of the Ishedet tree at his side,

it is while the children of the weak one present what they did.

it is while they enter into the east.

Now, as for this day of battle,

this day in which the enemies of the lord of all are destroyed.

This night and this day of battle,

of watching over the rebels,

this day in which the enemies of the lord of all are destroyed.

Who is it indeed, the great cat?

It is Re himself,

as Perception says:

'Catlike is he in this which he does.'

What came to be, it is his name of 'cat'.

Now, as for the splitting of the Ishedet tree at his side,

it is while the children of the weak one present what they did.

Now, as for this day of battle,

it is while they enter into the east.

Then (there was) war in the sky and in the land.

Oh, Re, who is in his egg,

who shines in his sun disk,
psd m [sh.t]-f who shines in his horizon,

who swam upon his firmament,

who has no equal in the gods,

who sails upon the supports of Shu,

who gives the wind with a blast of his mouth,

who illuminates the two lands as he rises.

May you rescue me from this god who is hidden of shapes,

whose two eyebrows are as the two arms of the balance,

his day of the reckoning of the robber, who places the lassoes on the evildoers at his place of slaughter, which kills the souls.

Now, who is it, this god whose eyebrows are as the arms of the balance?

It is Horus, the foremost of Letopolis.

Another manner of saying:

It is Thot.

May you rescue me from this which belongs to the keepers of wounds, the butcher, those who boil in a vat, who are sharp of fingers, who destroy the enemies of Osiris.

As for these which belongs to those that boil in a vat,

it is the tribunal who opposes the case of the enemies of Osiris.

it is the tribunal who opposes the case of the enemies of Osiris.

It is [...] who is with them, which belongs to the domain of Osiris,

An offering which the king will give of Osiris, may he give an invocation offering to the honoured dead, this ḫpt-ḥtp. He says: going forth in the day.

The voice comes to be, all belongs to me.

I exist while I am alone,

I am the god who came to be (by) himself.

He has created the Enneads, who is not repelled from the gods.

Yesterday belongs to me while I know the morning.
It is Osiris.

The warship of the gods is made in accordance with that which I say.

I know the name of this god who is in it.

His name is the praise of Re.

Recitation by the Osiris, this $\text{wh-htp}$, whom the white one made.

I am this great phoenix, who is in Heliopolis.

Who is he?

It is Osiris.

I am Min in his procession,

I have placed my two feathers on my head, so that I may exist in my land.

What even are his two feathers?

Horus, while he protects his father.

They are his two feathers, they are the two great uraei of the father Atoum.

May I exist on my land, after I came from my city.

What is against it?

The shadow of the horizon of my father Atoum.

My wrongdoing is expelled,

after my wrongdoing was driven away.

My disorder which belongs to me is removed,

while I purify in these two very great pools,

which in are Heracleopolis,

which purify the offerings of the people,

for the great god who is in it.

Who even is he?

Re himself.

What even are the two very great pools?
It is the lake of natron together with the lake of maA.t.

I will go upon the roads which I knew in the direction of the city of the true ones.

What is indeed I go even upon the roads which I knew?

I exist together with my father Atoum in the course of every day.

One who speaks on behalf of one who his lord will love.

Greetings to you, lords of truth, the tribunal which is behind Osiris, who place terror in the evildoers, who are behind 'she is satisfied while she protects'.

Behold this wh-htp, coming to you,

May you dispel the evil which belongs to him, like that which you did for these seven spirits who are in the following of the lord of the nomes,

As for this portal of 'she is satisfied while she protects', it is the fiery snake, after she gave Re to Osiris, in order to slay his enemies with her,

who slays the enemies of the Osiris, this wh-htp.

As for the chief of this great tribunal, 'The great one was not driven away' is his name.

The chief of this tribunal:

'The great one was not driven away'.

The Chief of this tribunal:

'She is satisfied while she protects'.

'Her lord was not driven away'.

As for the chief of this great tribunal, 'The great one was not driven away' is his name.
the great bull 'his flesh which is in front of his fire',
'the one who enters upon the one who is in his hour',

This uth. I am his two souls which are in the middle of the two fledglings.
What is it indeed?
It is Osiris,
when he entered into Busiris,
after he was found there for Re.
Then one embraced the other, because they became as his two souls. Now, as for his two fledglings, Horus who protects his father, together with Horus, foremost of Letopolis.
I am this great cat,
who split the Ishedet tree at his side in Heliopolis,
this night of battle,
of watching over the rebels,
this day of destroying the enemies of Atoum in it.
Who is it, this great cat?
It is Re himself, 'cat' is said to him, as Perception says: ‘Catlike is he in this which he does.’ What came to be, it is his name of 'cat'. Now, as for the splitting of the Ishedet tree at his side in Heliopolis, it is while the child of the weak one presents what they did. Now, as for the day of battle, it is while they are caused to enter the east. (There is) war in the land in its entirety, in the sky and the land. Because I am even upon the land, the one who proceeds upon the land with Re, who moors well with Osiris. Your offerings will not come to be with me because of these which belong to the chiefs their braziers. Because I am in the following of the lord of things in order to write for the ones who will come to be. This \( \text{wḥḥ-ḥtp} \) will fly as a falcon, he, this \( \text{wḥḥ-ḥtp} \), will cackle as a goose, the Osiris, this \( \text{wḥḥ-ḥtp} \), will pass eternity like Nehebkau. Oh, Atoum, who is in the great mansion, sovereign of the gods, May you rescue me from this god, who swears in butchery, his hue is as the people.

The one who is in the winding of the lake of fire, the one who swallows shadows, who steals hearts, who places the wound, before he is seen. Now, as for the day of the unification of the two lands', it is the day when Shu buried Osiris. Oh, Re, who is in his egg, who shines in his sun disk,
who shines in his horizon,
who swims upon his firmament,
while I am rescued from the hand of this god,
who gives the wind with a blast of his mouth,
who illuminates the two lands as he rises,
while I am rescued from the hand of this god who is hidden of shapes,
whose two eyebrows are as the two arms of the balance, who places the lasso on the evildoers at his place of slaughter, this day of the reckoning of the robber in front of the arm of the lord of all.
May you save me from this which belongs to those who boil in a vat, who make the fingers of Osiris sharp.

Oh, lord of terror, who is upon the two lands, the lord of terror, who makes the places of slaughter flourish,

Oh, lord of terror, who is upon the two lands,

Oh,有效灵魂，who is in Heracleopolis,
who gives essences, who expels evildoers,
to whom the roads of eternity are conducted,
Re himself.
May you rescue this \(\text{wh-htp} \) from the one who takes the people,
who licks what is putrefied,
who lives from putrefaction,
who is in darkness and obscurity,
for whom the ones who are with the ones of darkness of the weary one are afraid.
Oh, this Khepri, who is in the middle of the bark, the primeval one, his body is eternity.
whose power was given to the lord of all,
those who place slaughter within their places of judgment,
in order to watch over his enemies,
for whom the ones who are with the ones of darkness of the weary one are afraid.
those who do not go forth from their watch.
This \(\text{wh-htp} \) will not fall to your knives,
he will not enter into your places of judgment,
this \(\text{wh-htp} \) will not sit within your traps (or) in your vats, this \(\text{wh-htp} \) will not descend into your traps, without you doing things with this \(\text{wh-htp} \) and this which belongs to the abominations of the gods, because as for this \(\text{wh-htp} \), he passed being pure in the midst of the Mesqet, to whom supper from faience will be given in the \(\text{twn.t} \) shrine.
The Osiris \(\text{wh-htp} \), the excellent one, true of voice, possessor of reverence, honoured dead with the city gods, and the gods of upper Egypt and lower Egypt. May they give an invocation offering for the honoured dead under Osiris, \(\text{wh-htp} \), possessor of reverence, after \(\text{hd-sp-sn.w-??} \), possessor of reverence, true of voice made bread and beer.

Greetings to you, true lords, the tribunal which is behind Osiris, because I am one from those of the ones who are behind Horus.

What is it, one from these of those who are behind Horus?

It are the words of one whom his lord will love.

I saw Re who was born on yesterday, from the buttocks of the celestial cow.

He is hale while I am hale, and vice-versa.

What is it, Re who was born on yesterday from the buttocks of the celestial cow?

What is it, the Udjat eye?

Now, as for the celestial cow, it is the Udjat eye.

I am one from these of the ones who are behind Horus.

It are the words of one whom his lord will love.

Greetings to you, true lords, the tribunal which is behind Osiris,

Ho, the Osiris, this snbi

All comes to be.

I exist while I am alone,

I am Re in his first appearances,

I am Re, who came to be by himself, who created the names, the lord of the Enneads,

who is not repelled from the gods.

Yesterday belongs to me while I know the morning.

The warship of the gods was made in accordance with that which I say.

I am the one who knows the name of this great god who is in it.

The supervisor of that which exists.

I am Min in his procession,

I have placed my two feathers on my head.

May I exist on my land, after I came from my city.

My wrongdoing is expelled,

Ancestors,

I will proceed upon the roads which I knew in the direction of the island of the true ones.

I arrive at the land of the horizon-dwellers of the sky,

while I go forth from the holy portal.

Ancestors,

give your two arms to me,

Your warrant comes even to you.

I came even from the two Ouou-places,
while I am in their arm, (namely) the gods.

Do not take them away, these which they gave to me upon the lake, which the rushes cover. These seven gods, they were found. They are bowed and they harvest barley, while you bow.

I gather even that which is between their thighs in order that the voice will go forth for them there, in traveling downstream to their Letopolis, in traveling upstream. He saw that the boat will be brought to him, equipped is the spirit, because I will be content.

The second which made two, he has passed by the second of two.

Three of threes, he has become three because of the second of the second of me.

Four as he has uprooted the one, the second suffers. Five, he has placed the second, my one is among that which is sealed.

How good is it to descend behind the helper, as the fire which went forth creeps.

Greetings to you, eye of Horus, who unites the gods with itself.

The sky and those who are on earth even tremble, while the gods repel them from their seat.

They say: the equipped spirit who came to this land, through the benefit which was equipped to him.

Come, so that you will see me with a fillet, covered with the royal head cloth, to the shoulder of my throne.

My father Geb has given my joy even to me through it, filling even the lakes of rushes.

Their papyrus thickets are in my possession, while the ferry boat crosses. Hathor, may your hand be given to me, while you give me to the sky.

May I sit between the great gods in order to

Appendix 4. Glossary of verbal definitions

The following appendix provides a glossary of the verbal forms used in this work and the database created for this work. Note that the terminology and structure is based on the grammar of Ockinga.\(^{15}\) The verbal forms are discussed in the form that they take, followed by the manner in which they can be used, separated into sub-groups. For full description with examples, see the grammar of Ockinga.

\(^{15}\) Ockinga (2005).
Nominal $sdm=f^{16}$
(Present tense, active or passive)\(^{17}\)

| Form: Gemination of 2ae gem. and 3ae inf. |
| Passive might receive a .$w$ or .$y$ ending before the classifier. |
| Use: |
| Initial position in main clause: Emphatic use. |
| Balanced sentence. |
| Nominal use: Subject of an adjectival sentence. |
| Following connectors. |

Circumstantial $sdm=f^{18}$
(Present tense, active or passive)

| Form: Gemination of 2ae gem. |
| Passive might receive a .$w$ or .$y$ ending before the classifier. |
| Use: Non initial position: Temporal clause. |
| $iw(=f)\ sdm=f$. |
| Non initial main clause\(^{19}\). |

$sdm.n=f^{20}$
(Past tense, active or passive)

| Form: Addition of .$n$ to the stem, after the classifier. |
| Gemination might occur in 2ae gem. or 3ae inf. |
| Use: |
| Initial position in main clause: Emphatic use. |
| Balanced sentence. |
| Nominal use: Subject of an adjectival sentence. |
| Following connectors. |
| (Circumstantial $sdm.n=f$) |
| Non initial position: Temporal clause. |
| $iw(=f)\ sdm.n=f$. |
| "$h\cdot n\ sdm.n=f$. |
| Non initial main clause\(^{21}\). |
| Negation (present tense following the negative particle $n$). |

\(^{16}\) Ockinga (2005), p. 37-38. Note that in Ockinga, this is called Aorist $sdm=f$ instead.

\(^{17}\) Note that Ockinga (2005), p. 46-47, has a specific separate entry for the passive, but I rather consider it something that can happen to each distinct $sdm=f$ form. See Roccati (2006).

\(^{19}\) Continuation of an $iw(=f)\ sdm=f$ structure in a secondary phrase, without repeating the $iw(=f)$.

\(^{20}\) Ockinga (2005), p. 38-41, used as a nominal or circumstantial, difference lies in use, rather than form, and is to some extent artificial.

\(^{21}\) Continuation of an $iw(=f)\ sdm.n=f$ or "$h\cdot n\ sdm.n=f$ construction in a secondary phrase, without repeating the $iw(=f)$ or "$h\cdot n$.

1268
Prospective \(s\)\(\text{d}m\)-\(f\)

(Future tense, active or passive)

Form:
- Gemination of the 2ae gem.
- Potential addition of a \(y\) ending or \(w\) ending (for noun subjects) before or after the classifier.

Use:
- Initial position in main clause: Main clause (future use).
- Object clause: After \(rh\), \(msg\), \(wd\), \(mri\) and \(shz\).
- Non initial position:
  - Following non-enclitic particle \(ks\).
  - Following particle \(ir\) (fulfillable conditions).
  - Final or consecutive clauses, expressing consequence.
  - Negation after negative particle \(n\) (OK future tense negation).
- Nominal use:
  - Following connectors.

Subjunctive \(s\)\(\text{d}m\)-\(f\)

(Future tense, active or passive)

Form:
- Potential addition of a \(y\) ending.
- Potential addition of a \(t\) ending with irregular 3ae inf.
- \(msg\) can be written as \(mst\).
- No gemination.

Use:
- Initial position in main clause: Wish clause.
- Object clause:
- Non initial position:
  - Final or consecutive clauses, expressing consequence.
  - Negation after the negative particle \(nn\) (future tense negation).
  - Negation after \(n-sp\).
  - Following particle \(ir\) (fulfillable conditions).

---

Indicative $sdm=t^{24}$ (Past tense, active or passive)

Form: No gemination.

$rdi$ commonly written with a $r$.

Passive might receive a $.w$ or $.y$ ending before the classifier.

Use: Initial position in main clause: Main clause (Past tense, OK and $CT$).

Non initial position: Negation after the negative particle $n$ (Past tense negation).

Nominal use: Following connectors $dr$ ‘since’, $m$-$ht$

‘after’, $m$ ‘when’, $n$ ‘because’.

$sdm.tsf^{25}$ (Active or passive)

Form: No gemination.

Addition of $.t$ ending before the classifier.

Use: Nominal use: Following connectors $r$ ‘until’, $dr$ ‘since’.

Non initial position: Negation after negative particle $n$ (action has not yet occurred).

$sdm.twsf^{26}$ (Passive form of active $sdm=t$ forms)

Form: Addition of a $.tw$ ending after the classifier. Note that the $w$ is commonly not written.

Further changes are dependent on the $sdm=t$ form the $.tw$ ending modifies.

Use: Passive form of the $sdm=t$ the $.tw$ ending modifies.

$sdm.n.twsf^{27}$ (Passive form of active $sdm.n=t$ forms)

Form: Addition of a $.tw$ ending after the $.n$ ending. Note that the $w$ is commonly not written.

Further changes are dependent on the $sdm.n=t$ form the $.tw$ ending modifies.

Use: Passive form of the $sdm.n=t$ the $.tw$ ending modifies.

$sdmm=t^{28}$ (Passive future tense)

Form: Gemination of the third radical of the 3-lit.

Potential addition for a $.w$ ending for 3ae inf. and causative verbs.

Use: Initial position in main clause: Main clause (Passive future tense)

---

24 Ockinga (2005), p. 41. Note that it is called (Historic) Perfect in Ockinga.
25 Ockinga (2005), p. 42, 47. Note that Ockinga separated the active and passive forms.
28 Ockinga (2005), p. 47. Old Kingdom form, rarely occurs in the Coffin Texts, usually replaced by a $sdm.twsf$.

1270
Relative $sdm$ $n$-$f^{29}$ (Past tense)

Form:
- No gemination.
- Can receive a $\cdot t$, $\cdot w$ or $\cdot w t$ group depending on the number and gender of the antecedent.

Use:
- Adjectival use: Attribute

Imperfective relative $sdm$-$f^{30}$ (Present tense)

Form:
- Gemination of 2ae gem. and 3ae inf.
- Can receive a $\cdot t$, $\cdot w$ or $\cdot w t$ group depending on the number and gender of the antecedent.

Use:
- Adjectival use: Attribute.

Prospective relative $sdm$-$f^{31}$ (future tense)

Form:
- No gemination
- Can receive a $\cdot t$, $\cdot w$ or $\cdot w t$ group depending on the number and gender of the antecedent.
- Can receive a $\cdot y$ or $\cdot r(i)$ ending as well.

Use:
- Adjectival use: Attribute.

SDm.ty-f\(^\text{32}\) (Future verbal adjective)

Form:
Addition of a .ty group to the stem, and a y after the suffix (except for plural).
Commonly, the y is not written.

Use:
- Adjecntival use: Attribute.
- Nominal use: As a noun.

SDm.in-f\(^\text{33}\) (Contingent past tense)

Form:
Addition of a .in group between the stem and the classifier.

Use:
- Initial position in main clause: Main clause (Contingent past tense)

SDm.hr-f\(^\text{34}\) (Contingent present tense)

Form:
Addition of a .hr group between the stem and the classifier.

Use:
- Initial position in main clause: Main clause (Contingent present tense)

SDm.kz-f\(^\text{35}\) (Contingent future tense)

Form:
Addition of a .kz group between the stem and the classifier.

Use:
- Initial position in main clause: Main clause (Contingent future tense, expresses consequence).

Imperative\(^\text{36}\)

Form:
- Only in 2\(^{\text{nd}}\) person singular or plural.
- The .w ending can be added for plural forms.
- No gemination.
- Irregular forms: ini for rdi, mi for iwi.
- Special form: m for ‘take!’.
- i. prefix can be added to the stem.

Use:
- As an imperative.

\(^{34}\) Ockinga (2005), p. 48.

\(^{35}\) Ockinga (2005), p. 49.

\(^{36}\) Ockinga (2005), p. 35.
Stative

Form: No gemination.
Additional of number and gender specific endings after the stem:
1. c sg: .k, .kw, .ki, .kwi; 2. c sg: .t(i); 3. m sg: .w; 3. f sg: .t(i); 1. c pl: .wn (rare);
2. c pl: .tywn; 3. m/c pl: .w (or .y); 3. m du: .wy; 3. f du: .ty.
The .w and .t(i) endings are commonly written before the classifier, the other endings after the classifiers.
The .w or .y ending is often not written.

Use:
Initial position in main clause:
1\textsuperscript{st} person, other forms need a preceding particle.
2\textsuperscript{nd} person, expressing a wish.
Non initial position:
Expressing a state or perfect tense.
Adverbial predicate in pseudo-verbal constructions.

Infinitive

Form: Gemination in 2ae gem.
Addition of a .t ending for 3ae inf. and 4ae inf., causative 2-lit. and the verb sm.
Not always added.

Use:
Non initial position:
Object clause (wd, rdi, m33, mri, šš).
Following connectors.
Narrative infinitive.
Captions in scenes.
Psuedo-verbal construction:
\textit{iw=f hr sdm iw=f m sdm
iw=f r sdm}

Perfective participle\(^{39}\) (Past tense, active or passive)

Form: No gemination.
Can reflect gender and number of the antecedent.
Masculine singular forms of the 3ae inf. can receive a \( .y \) ending when passive.

Use:
- Nominal use: As a noun. Predicate in a nominal sentence with unstressed subject.
- Adjectival use: Attribute Predicate in an adjectival sentence.

Imperfective participle\(^{40}\) (Present tense, active or passive)

Form: Gemination with 2ae gem. and 3ae inf.
Can reflect gender and number of the antecedent.
Additional of a \( .w \) ending is possible.

Use:
- Nominal use: As a noun. Predicate in a nominal sentence with unstressed subject.
- Adjectival use: Attribute Predicate in an adjectival sentence.

Prospective participle\(^{41}\) (Future tense, active or passive)

Form: No gemination
Can reflect gender and number of the antecedent.
Masculine forms can receive a \( .y \) ending, feminine forms a \( .t(i) \) ending.

Use:
- Nominal use: As a noun. Predicate in a nominal sentence with unstressed subject.
- Adjectival use: Attribute Predicate in an adjectival sentence.

Appendix 5. Verbal structure

The following appendix consists of the groups which were used for chapter 4. On the following pages, the phrases used for the comparison in chapter 4 are laid out, following the sequential order of spells used for this work. Every spell is divided in phrases, which are separated into different groups, based on lemma, morphology, syntax and position, as discussed in chapter 4.2.

For the purpose in clarity, the verbal form discussed for every group has been marked in red. Note that the witnesses might be marked in red or green as well. In these cases, red was used when the verb form was completely reconstructed. Green was used when the verb form was partially reconstructed.

However, it needs to be noted that the definition of a partial lacuna is extremely broad. For example, it can be used when only one sign of the sign group is damaged, even if the sign is recognisable. On the other end of the spectrum, it can be used when there are only traces left of one sign of the sign group.

For a glossary regarding the definitions of the verbal forms used, see appendix 4.
