

Voice in Trans and Gender Diverse People

March 30th 2023

Het Pand, Ghent

GHENT
UNIVERSITY

© Ann-Sophie De Steur

FACULTY OF MEDICINE
AND HEALTH SCIENCES

Voice in Trans and Gender Diverse People Symposium

Program

14h30	Well-being of TGD persons in Belgium - prof. dr. Joz Motmans (UZ Gent)
14h50	Voice and communication situation questionnaire for persons presumed female at birth - dr. Ulrika Nygren (Karolinska Institute, Sweden)
15h10	Phonosurgery in trans persons: an interdisciplinary approach - prof. dr. Evelien D'haeseleer (UGent - UZ Gent)
15h30	Voice harmonization sessions in Liège: our experience - prof. dr. Dominique Morsomme (ULiège)
15h50	The role of intonation in voice training for TGD persons - drs. Tine Papeleu (UGent)
16h10	Q&A and coffee break
17h30	Effectiveness of speech therapy for transgender women (doctoral defense) - drs. Clara Leyns (UGent)
19h30	Reception

Registration and venue

Venue	Het Pand, Onderbergen 1, 9000 Ghent, Belgium Sint-Michiels parking is situated directly across the venue
Registration	Please confirm your physical/online presence before March 19th via: https://event.ugent.be/registration/doctoraatClaraLeyns
Payment	Symposium: 40 euro; 20 euro for students and GALA members; IBAN BE29 0016 2672 5564 Doctoral defense: free

Organization

Dept. of Rehabilitation Sciences, Center for Speech & Language Sciences, Ghent University
Gentse Alumni Logopedie & Audiologie, GALA
Prof. dr. Evelien D'haeseleer - Drs. Clara Leyns, clara.leyns@ugent.be

