Re: 2010 Genzyme Student Poster Contest
Abstract Control Number: 10-A-585-AACC

Dear Jean-Francois Kaux,

Congratulations on being selected to present your abstract at the Genzyme Student Poster Contest at the 2010 AACC Annual Meeting in Anaheim, California.

At the contest, your abstract (to be presented as a poster) will be reviewed by a panel of judges who will rate your abstract on the basis of scientific value/content, originality/novelty, quality of writing, and presentation style. There are four awards:

1st Place $1,000
2nd Place $300
2 Honorable Mentions $100

To participate, you will be required to display your poster and be prepared to answer questions from the judges on your research. Below are the details for the student poster contest:

Date: Monday, July 26, 2010 –Genzyme Student Poster Contest
Location: Hilton Anaheim Hotel
Room Location: Pacific Ballroom C
Time: 3:15 p.m.*

*Please be present by 2:50 p.m. so that you can be checked in and hang up your poster for display.

If your schedule permits, please join us immediately preceding the poster event to show your support for the students invited to present in the Genzyme Student Oral Presentations Contest. Presentations will be given on Monday July 26, 2010 in Pacific Ballroom D of the Hilton Anaheim Hotel beginning at 2:00pm.

Awards Ceremony

The prizes for the oral presentations and the poster contest will be presented at the reception being hosted by the Society for Young Clinical Laboratorians (SYCL) from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the Hilton Anaheim Hotel in California Pavilion B.

Congratulations again, and I look forward to meeting you in Anaheim, California!

If you have any questions as you prepare for the poster contest, please feel free to contact me. My email address is cfantz@emory.edu.
